

Expansion Questions

I'm all about teaching and experiencing what works. It is accepted that the physical action of writing with pen in hand formulates new pathways in the brain. It is in the spirit of connection with this innate ability to reprogram oneself through this physical action that I invite you to actively participate in the following Expansion Questions and write (not type or keyboard) your responses. This will more quickly enable you to internalize what you've learned, as well as provide witness to where you will lead your money energy!

Let's begin.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of 20 horizontal lines spaced evenly down the page.

Lined writing area with horizontal lines.
